KURUME AZALEAS

Massasoit—This is the first time we have offered this fine Kurume Azalea to our customers. We have watched it careful for three years and think it is one of the best Red Kurume Azaleas on the market. It is a single, Bright Red (larger bloom than Hinodegiri). A very compact grower. Blooming season about twice as long as other Kurume Azaleas. This Azalea has attracted a great deal of attention by all that have seen it. We are proud to offer it to our customers. Limited supply this year.
